The present administration should remember that true reform can never be accomplished by a swindling or deception.

Princeton will soon take some definite action to prevent hazing. Princeton should teach its students to be manly moral. A manly young man never hazes

A prominent young lawyer of New York tried his first case the other day. During the trial he got mad, and struck the opposing counsel. The result: The lawyer was fined $25 and his client was sent to the state prison for seventeen years.

The Pike's Peak railroad in Colorado when completed, as it is soon expected to be, will be the most notable track in the world. It will mount 2,000 feet higher than the Lima and Oroya road in Peru. The entire thirty miles of its length will be a succession of complicated curves and grades up the sides of the great mountain, with no piece of straight track longer than 300 feet.

Mr. Carl Schurz is still hunting for a newspaper to purchase. He now wants the Boston Advertiser, an independent paper. Its politics suit him but its price doesn't. But he may fetch it after all. Mr. Schurz is one of the most vigorous editorial writers in this country. He is polished and sharp, and if he had some one to keep him on the right track he would soon beco me a power in American journalism.

An exchange says: "The president of the Canadian Pacific railway company is to be awarded the distinction of knighthood because of his enterprising railway services. That is not the way we treat a great commercial genius in this country. We call him a robber baron, a land-grabber, a monopolist and an arch-thief, and hold him up to the execration of our fellow fortizens." There is too much truth in this statement. In this country, when a man by force of energy and by the exercise of superb ability, triumphs over what seems to be almost insurmountable obstacles in spanning the continent with a railway, he is looked upon with suspicion and is counted as a speculator.

The other day the Gazette mentioned the fact that in nearly two-thirds of the counties of Georgia had taken advantage of the local option law and had voted to prohibit the buying and selling of liquor n these counties. The campaign has now opened in Atlanta, and great excitement prevails. The streets are nightly paradedby bands of men and women. Republicans and democrats, whites and blacks mingle together in prayer meetings and mass meetings. All this is because an election will be held on the 25th of the present month on the question whether the sale of liquor shall be suppressed in Atlanta.

The Boston Herald, a free trade paper, made the statement that unmanufactured logs could not be admitted into the United States without paying a heavy duty. The editor of the Boston Bulletin thereupon wrote to the collector of the port of Boston, asking what would be the duty on one hundred imported logs, and the collector promptly replied that such logs would be admitted free of duty. This is a good deal like a prominent farmer of Rock county, who is a democrat, maintaining that the people were taxed by a duty on tea and coffee. This democratic friend is kindly advised that there is no duty whatever on these articles.

The Atlanta coustitution, the most influential of southern democratic newspapers, stops its presses long enough to say this: "The portents of the time, so to speak, point to Hendricks and Hill as the men for 1888." But what is the matter with Cleveland? This sidewinder for the present head of the democratic administration is quite significant, coming from the most prominent democratic newspaper in the south. When such a paper, representing as it does, the prevailing sentiment of the south, portends that in 1888 the democratic national ticket is not going to be "Cleveland and Hendricks nor Hendricks and Cleveland, nor Cleveland and Hill, nor Hill and Cleveland, but Hendricks and Hill," then the south may be said to be firmly in the saddle, and that it wants no more of such a reformer as President Cleveland.

The handsomest private residence in Washington has just been completed by John Hay, who was President Lincoln's private secretary, and after his death was assistant secretary of state. It is built on the highest priced land ever sold in Washington, and stands facing the white house on the Lafayette park side. Mr. Hay has grown immensely rich in the past few years. When President Lincoln picked him up in Springfield in 1861, he was a law student, and a bright, deserving young follow, but had no means. Mr. Lincoln made him his private secretary, and he filled the office until the death of the president. He won national fame by his verses on "Jim Bludso", and "Little Breeches." He married a daughter of the late Amasa Stone, of Cleveland, and by that marriage inherited a fortune of several millions. His purpose is to live in Washington and chiefly follow literary pursuits.

The question of admitting Dakota to the Union as a state will doubtless come before the next congress in some form or other. In the last territorial election the people of Dakota by a large majority ratified the state constitution recently formed, and the only question for the people of Dakota to settle now is whether they shall ask to come into the Union as one or two states. That question, unfortunately, seems to have divided the citizens of the t erritory into two hostile camps and threatens to stand in the way of their admission. The democrats in congress are naturally unwilling to admit one probably republican state, much less two, if they can help it, and will seize upon this dissension as an excuse for postponing action in the matter. There are doubtless many arguments in favor of a division of the territory, and if it keeps on growing as it has been doing for the past few years, even the most hidebound democratic congress will have to recognize its claims.

The long dead-lock in the Oregon legislature has ended by the election of ex-Senator John H. Mitchell. Senator Slater succeeded Mr. Mitchell in 1879, the latter being defeated in the republican caucus. Slater's term expired on the 3d of March last, and the legislature, which met last winter made a long but vain attempt to elect a successor, but after scores of ballots had been taken, finally adjourned without breaking the dead-lock. The governor refused to make an appointment, and the seat in the senate was vacant during the special session following Mr. Cleveland's inauguration. There was some scandal growing out of the candidacy of Mr. Mitchell last winter, and it was revived this fall. A Portland paper published what purported to be a number of letters to his wife's sister The letters were very compromising, and in them Mr. Mitchell, protesting his love, declared again and again, his intention of marrying the sister as soon as he could get a release from his wife, which, he said, would not be long. These were forgeries, and were gotten up for the express purpose of defeating his election. When this onslaught was made on Mr. Mitchell, the democrats joined his republican adherents, and elected him on the third ballot on Wednesday. Mr. Mitchell has been a resident of Oregon for twenty-five years. He is a lawyer of considerable ability and has long been prominent in the republican politics of that state. For four years he was professor of medical jurisprudence in the university of Oregon.

THE IRON INTEREST LOOKING UP.

Very recently, the Iron Age received reports from nearly all the blast furnace in the country, and from these one can see considerable hope for the iron industry. In substance, the returns show that at the beginning of the present year the number of furnaces in blast has increased in Pennsylvania from 110 115. In Ohio the number in blast has also increased by two, and in Missouri by three. But in the other western states there has been a decrease, no furnaces being in blast in Wisconsin or Indiana. The number in the western states is now fifty and was only forty-seven on January 1. In New Jersey there has been an increase, three spiegel furnaces, having gone into operation, but in New York the number in blast has declined from fifteen to nine. An increase in Connecticut makes the number in the eastern states twenty-two, and it was the same at the beginning of the year. In the southern states a decrease in the number of furnaces in blast appears in Alabama, Virginia and Kentucky, and a decrease of three in Tennessee, so that the number in the whole south is forty three, against forty nine at the beginning of the year.

The improvement in the iron industry is largely due to the increasing demand for steel rails. The price has somewhat advanced, growing out of the expansion of railway building which promises to be fairly active during the coming season.

COLONEL VILAS AND FOREIGN MAILS.

Postmaster General Vilas will embody in his forthcoming report what he calls an explanation of his conduct in overruling a law of congress which appropriated $800,000 for carrying the foreign mails, one half of which was to be paid to American steamships. The readers of the Gazette will probably remember that the foreigh steamship companies have been paid, while the American companies have not. Resolutions are to be offered in both houses of congress concerning the action of the postmaster general, and anticipating this movement, Colonel Vilas is preparing an answer. He will try to show that there was a concerted effort by the American steamship companies to coerce his action; and he will also undertake to show that his compromise offer of the sea and inland portage, was five times better than their old rate of compensation,

But the fact is that the postmaster general wanted the American steamship lines serve as a cheap advertising agency for democratic retrenchment and reform. It was the intention of the law of congress to disburse $400,000 among the American lines. This was regarded as an equitable arrangement since the government derived a net profit of over $700,000 at the lowest calculation from this foreign service. It is also a fact that this amount is greatly less than foreign nations pay their lines for carrying the mails.

The administration in this as in other matters is striving to make a reputation for efficiency and economy at the expense of the industrial interests of the country. Debates in congress last winter disclosed the inadequacy of the compensation offered for the marine transportation of the mails. The facts of the case are embodied in the reports of joint committees on American shipping and are undisputed. While Italy has been paying $2,000'000, France $4,500,000, and England $3,000,000 a year for the transportation of the foreign mails, the United States have paid $325,000. The rates of compensation offered to American lines have been out of all proportion to the immense sums paid to railroads and stage companies for inland transportation, although the government has made a handsome profit on foreign mails. All these facts were carefully digested by congress before the act for the relief of the companies was passed. But the postmaster general is equally indifferent to the action of congress and to the requirements of justice He snatches at the chance of making political capital for the administration by withholding what he choses to consider a subsidy and turning the money into the treasury as the first fruits of democratic thrift.

The English government has always made liberal arrangements with steamship lines for carrying foreign mails. The expense has invariably exceeded the income from postage, but it has been considered an excellent investment for the nation at large since general trade is promoted by the establisment and prosperity of steamship lines. No sensible Englishman ever complains that such payments are subsidies to rapacious corporations. It is recognized throughout England as a judicious national policy to treat the steamship lines generously for the sake of increasing the facilities for foreign commerce. The postmaster general is either ignorant of the facts or indifferent to the commercial interests of the country. He leaves the export trade and the steamship companies to take their chances and cuts down the expenses of his department by withholding the money voted by congress for a special object.

Then, again, to show how narrow-minded the postmaster general is on matters pertaining to our foreign mail service, it is only necessary to refer to his policy of compelling business correspondence with Australia to go by the way of England, and Brindisi, in the province of Naples. The comparison between the two routes shows that the postmaster general's scheme involves serious delay and loss of time in the transmission of the mails and also a great increase in expense to the public in postage. But this is only a small part of the practical effect of the contemplated change. Not only will business transactions be obstructed by delay in correspondence and mail communication be rendered more costly, but houses in the United States will be placed in a position of positive disadvantage in comparison with English firms, in receiving orders and dispatching mer chandise. By the proposed change of route England is practically placed from ten to twenty days nearer Australia and from fourteen to twenty-five days nearer New Zealand than New York, Chicago and San Francisco. So long as the Pacific mail steamers are running to the South Seas and carrying American mails, the advantages of time are as much in favor of our merchants and against their English rivals.

But what counts the commercial prosperity of the United States when compared with the business of posing as a democratic economist and reformer?

AT BAYONET'S POINT.

SERVIANS AND BULGARIANS GET TO CLOSE QUARTERS.

Conflicting Accounts as to the Victors—Alexander Leads His Men—Russia Sets a Limit—Greece Spoiling for a Fray—From Harcmah.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—A telegram from Sofia says that the Bulgarians, after desperate fighting, have carried every one of the Servian positions which were menacing Slivitza. Prince Alexander led the Bulgarian columns in person.

From Belgrade the report is that an official dispatch relative to the engagement near Slivitza says that after heavy fighting Prince Alexander was forced to retreat to Slivnitza. Both sides lost heavily. A sharp fight has occurred on the left of the Servian advance line, where both forces hold their positions.

These dispatches are from Bulgarian and Servian sources respectively.

LATER.—The Daily News Sofia correspondent confirms the Bulgarian victory at Slivnitza.

The Daily News war correspondent telegraphs that the Servians lost at the battle of Slivnitza ten cannon, 300 horses and an estimated number of 3,000 men killed and wounded.

A telegram from Belgrade says an official report from the front states that the Servians entered Bresnik. The town has been abandoned by the Bulgarians, who, in their haste to get away, left eight guns behind them. The capture of Bresnik leaves that route open to Sofia. The Bulgarian army of the Widdin district may be considered completely destroyed and dispersed. At Bresnik 161 prisoners and a number of rifles were taken.

Russia has announced, as has before been tacitly understood, that Servia will be checked after her occupation of Sofia, which is now regarded as a foregone conclusion. Bulgaria has far from strengthened her cause among the powers by blockading the Danube below Widdin. Such a course is so gross a violation of international law and of the Berlin treaty, especially, that it seems impossible the blockade can have been sanctioned by Prince Alexander.

The following Servian account is from Tsaribrod: The Servians found the Bulgarians of unexpected strength at Slivnitza. The Servians, after continuous fighting for eighteen hours, are slowly pressing Prince Alexander toward Sofia, the Bulgarians disputing every inch. Thirty thousand Servians were engaged in Tuesday's fighting at Slivnitza.

A dispatch from Sofia says: Troops are arriving here from Roumelia. Twenty-five thousand Servians were engaged near Slivnitza, while there were only 15,000 Bulgarians in the engagement. There was desperate fighting at Slivnitza Wednesday. The Bulgarians forced the Servian right wing back at the point of the bayonet for several kilometers with great losses. It is reported that the Servians fired upon the Red Cross ambulances.

VIENNA, Nov. 19.—From information received from Bulgarian sources it is gathered that a force of the Bulgarian militia has penetrated Servian territory and captured 150 persons. It is also stated that the Servians are retreating from several of their advanced positions in Bulgaria. The Bulgarians are said to have successfully resisted several Servian attacks in the Dragoman pass.

Greece Will Have to Fight.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Telegraph says it is almost certain that Greece will be compelled to engage in war to preserve her rights. A Greek naval captain is now on his way to London to purchase war vessels for his government.

The Porte Protests.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 19.—The porte has formally protested to the powers against the invasion of Bulgaria by Servia and declaring that Turkey reserves her military rights in Bulgarian territory.

British Success in Burmah.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The capture of the Minhla forts was effected Wednesday after three hours fighting, in which the Burmese acquitted themselves much more creditably than had been anticipated. Their antiquated weapons of defense, however, were wholly inadequate to resist the twenty-pounders of the British, handled with the precision and coolness born of experience. The hardest fighting the English will have to do will probably be on the way to Mandalay, whither they are now marching. The fanaticism of the Burmese may be relied on to defend the capital to the uttermost, but the result is not doubtful.

Long Coal Strike Ended.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 19.—The long coal strike of over 5,000 coal miners in the Monongahala valley for 8 cents per bushel was virtually settled Wednesday at a conference between representatives of both sides. A resolution was passed that 2¾ cents should be the rate paid in the first, second and third pools, and 2 cents in the fourth. The majority of the works will be in operation by the first of next week. The labor leaders are well pleased with the result of the conference. The miners are suffering and need work.

Says Riel Was Insane.

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 19.—Dr. Clark, medical superintendent of the Toronto insane asylum, and considered the best insanity expert in Canada, examined Riel at the time of his trial. He stated Wednesday that Riel was a full maniac and had been committed to an asylum in Washington (U. S.) and Longue Point, Montreal. His visions, dreams and prophesies were the result of a diseased mind. He was not a crank like Guiteau, but was intermittently insane from boyhood. He should have been confined for life.

Mackin's Fate Decided.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—That Joseph C. Mackin must suffer the punishment for his offense which the criminal court imposed is now beyond all doubt. The supreme court Wednesday sent to Clerk Stephens the procedendo affirming the decision of the lower court and ordering the execution of the sentence. Sheriff Hanchett said Wednesday night that Mackin would be taken to Joliet either on the noon or evening train Thursday. His counsel has filed the papers for a rehearing, but this will not prevent him going to the penitentiary.

Episcopal Anniversary.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—The fiftieth anniversary of the reorganization of the Domestic and Foreign Episcopal Missionary society, and of the consecration of Dr. Kemper, the first missionary bishop, was commemorated Wednesday in Christ church. Among the participants were Bishops Lee, of Delaware; Boddell, of Ohio; Howe, of Pennsylvania, and Garrett, of Texas. Bishop Whipple, of Minnesota, preached the sermon.

A Philadelphia dispatch reports that orders have this week been given for 30,000 tons of steel rails, at prices ranging from $32 to $33 per ton.

We desire to build up a home trade in

Buckwheat Flour,

And we guarantee that all Buckwheat Flour sold from these mills shall be made from Pure Buckwheat, and shall contain no other ingredient.

Our Graham Flour

Is made from thoroughly cleaned, Choice, White Winter Wheat. Graham Flour takes its name from Sylvester Graham, the author of a noted treatise on "Bread and Bread Making." It is conceded that bread made from unbolted or Graham Flour, is more healthful and nutritious than fine, white bolted flour, for the reason that it contains more of the gluten, from which the flesh, bone, brain and tissue of the body is built up and sustained.

The whitest and most beautiful bread found upon the tables of the critical American, contains less of the elements of

STRENGTH, HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Than the dark colored rye bread in Germany, or the heavy loaves found in the knap-sacks of the Russian soldier. Graham bread made from good, clean wheat is very excellent and healthful food. We propose to make and sell this kind of flour.

Corn Meal.

As a staple article of diet in the Eastern and Southern States, and should be more generally used here. Is there a Yankee on the face of the earth, who has wandered so far from the hills of New England, that he has forgotten the baked pork and beans, the rye and the Indian meal bread, or the baked Indian pudding with which his heart and stomach were gladdened during the days of his boyhood. Hoe cake, Johnny cake, mush and milk, corn meal gems, and Indian meal puddings, with pork and bacon, were main articles of diet for the sturdy men and women who subdued and built up the older States of the Union. We offer to the trade, and families, both the bolted and granulated Corn Meal.

Especial attention is called to our

Minnesota Linseed Meal

It is excellent for dairy stock, and horses, when fed with other grain.

BLAND'S DOLLAR.

RUMORS AS TO THE PRESIDENT'S VIEWS ON SILVER

And Legal Tender—A Ruling on Pensions for Technical Deserters—The Vincent Case Again—Notes from the National Capital.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The Tribune's Washington City special says: There is reason to believe that the president will recommend the repeal of the Bland silver-dollar law and the coinage of a new silver dollar which shall be the equivalent in value of the present gold dollar, and that one of the principal features of his tariff recommendations will be the enlargement of the free list, particularly in the direction of raw materials. Some think he will go so far as to recommend the repeal of the legal-tender act.

The question raised as to the effect of the official estimate of the value of the Russian ruble upon the wool tariff continues to be the subject of much discussion at the treasury. It is claimed that the decision that the customs service is bound by the mint bureau's estimates of the values of coin conflicts with the tariff on wool. The acceptance of a valuation based upon bullion value rather than value as money of account is objected to by treasury officials as illogical and opposed to the spirit of tariff legislation.

Titles to Land in New Mexico.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19.—Governor Ross, of New Mexico, in his annual report, places the population of the territory at 134,000, an increase of 15,000 within five years. The territory is represented to be in a prosperous condition. One drawback to settlement, which the governor thinks unjust, is popular prejudice about insecure titles to land. He says such insecurity does not exist to a greater extent than in other new countries where much of the land comes under Spanish grants. Many grants he says have been so extended as to include public land, and he instances one tract which was increased from 300 to 2,300 acres in this way. Attention is called to the fact that many fraudulent titles have been manufactured and thus suspicion is cast on many good titles. These titles, adds the governor, are in worse condition than when the territory was annexed. He asks congress to appoint a commission to quiet titles to land in New Mexico. Attention is directed to many cases where land has been obtained by fraud in, some instances through the connivance of officials. He recommends the construction of reservoirs in the mountains for irrigating purposes.

Think Vincent Is Making a Mistake.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19.—Referring to a Chicago dispatch published here to the effect that Judge Vincent's friends, among them Senator Cullom, would challenge the action of the president in removing Judge Vincent by contesting the confirmation of his successor, a prominent official said that the administration apprehended no trouble on that score. He thought Judge Vincent's friends were making a serious mistake in keeping his name before the country in the light of an injured individual, and that the government officials were in possession of facts demonstrating that however meritorious Judge Vincent might be in other essentials his appointment to the New Mexican bench was a mistake which would never have been made had the true situation been originally understood.

Couch and His Boomers Warned.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19.—Upon representations made some time ago by J. Wade McDonald, counsel for the Oklahoma boomers, that they would not again violate the law by entering the forbidden territory, Secretary Lamar and Attorney General Garland agreed to have indictments against the boomers nolle prosequied in the courts. Since then the secretary has heard of renewed invasions by boomers, and on the 9th instant wrote to Mr. McDonald that it was with great disappointment the department learned of the renewal of the attempts at unlawful invasion of the territory. He assured counsel for the boomers that if in future Capt. Couch or any of them are caught, no leniency will be shown them.

The Yearly Catch of Counterfeiters.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19.—The annual report of Chief Brooks, of the secret service division of the treasury, shows that the agents of the service have made 444 arrests during the year of persons counterfeiting and passing counterfeit money, etc.

The total amount of fines assessed was $13,300. A large number of plates, molds, dies, presses, etc. were captured, besides large quantities of material used in counterfeiting. During the year a $10 silver certifiate and a $10 national bank note were issued by counterfeiters and the gangs were captured, together with plates, etc. It is estimated by Chief Brooks that there is $100,000 of base money now in the hands of counterfeiters.

A Pensions Ruling.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19.—On Sept. 4 Commissioner Black, of the pension office, made a ruling refusing to allow applications for pension in cases where the records of the war department showed that the applicant was a deserter. The commissioner has furnished an explanation of the intent of the ruling and a statement of its probable result on the work before the office. In answer to expressions of dissatisfaction that were called forth by the ruling he says it was in strict accordance with the law, and only seeks to confine the work of adjudication to those claims whose beneficiaries have clear records. So far, however, from operating as a stumbling block, it will tend to expedite business.

Curiosities from Samoa.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19.—King Malietoa, of Samoa, has made a present to President Cleveland of a number of articles of Samoan manufacture, which have been placed on exhibition in the National museum. The collection consists of a kava bowl, a cocoanut cup, a rug made from the bark of the paper mulberry tree, and the complete wardrobe of a Samoan lady, the latter consisting merely of a girdle upon which are suspended fibres about two feet in length, of the inner bark of the mulberry tree.

Rascality in the Postoffice.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19.—The annual report of Chief Postoffice Inspector West shows that 539 arrests were made by inspectors during the year. Of this number 203 were tried and convicted and 222 await trial. During the year 459 postoffices were robbed, 256 burned, and 33 postal cars burned. Inspectors recovered and turned into the treasury from delinquent and ex-postmasters the sum of $58,353.

A Report Denied.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19.—The state department officials positively deny that the president has made any request for papers in regard to the condition of our naturalized citizens in Austria and Germany, or that there is any truth whatever in the report to that effect telegraphed from this city Wednesday.

I Don't Know What Ails Me.

Says many a sufferer. "I have the 'blues' frightfully; I am troubled with headache and dizziness; I have lost my appetite; there is a bad taste in my mouth constantly. What is the matter with me?" We will tell you: you are bilious. Get a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, use it faithfully, and you will soon be a new man again. All druggists have it.

They Will Surely Find You.

They are looking for you everywhere. Drafts of air in unexpected places, going from hot rooms to cold ones, carelessness in changing clothing. In short anything which ends in a common cold in the head. Unless arrested this kind of cold becomes seated in the mucous membrane of the head. Then it is catarrh. In any and all its stages this disease always yields to Ely's Cream Balm. Safe, agreeable, certain. Price 50 cents.

CONDENSED NEWS.

An evening train Wednesday carried from Chicago to El Paso, Ills., Mrs. Roy Goode and Miss Lillian Walter, the victims of the pistol of A. J. Burrus, last month. In an interview granted a reporter the ladies denied having written malicious letters to Mrs. Burrus, and declared they would push the prosecution to a close.

The Illinois board of agriculture has received from the Elgin board of trade a series of denunciatory resolutions for permitting the exhibition of counterfeit butter at the fat-stock show. On the contrary side, prominent cattle and hog breeders have presented a petition asking that the butterine industry be placed on its legitimate footing and receive the encouragement of the department of agriculture.

Railway Fares in Illinois.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The railway commissioners of this state have adopted the following rule governing fares:

"The passenger rate on each of said roads shall not be to exceed 3 cents per mile for the transportation of any person with ordinary baggage, not exceeding 150 pounds in weight, and one-half above rate for children between 5 and 12 years of age; also, a charge of 10 cents may be added to the fare of any passenger when the same is paid upon the cars, if a ticket might have been procured within a reasonable time before the departure of the train. No road will be required to carry a passenger for less than 5 cents and the fare shall be 3 cents per mile for any distance of three or more miles. In computing fares the distance shall be multiplied by the rate, and when the fraction of 1 cent is one-half or over it shall be reckoned as 1 cent, and for a fraction of less than ½ cent the same shall not be computed. To take effect Dec. 1, 1885."

JOHN M'CULLOUGH'S DEATH.

Blood Poisoning Declared to Have Been the Cause.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—An autopsy on the brain of the late John McCullough was held Wednesday morning in the receiving vault at Monument cemetery. It was conducted by Dr. Hugo Engel, professor of nervous diseases and clinical medicine at the Medico-Chirurgical college of this city, who attended the tragedian after his removal to this city from the Bloomingdale asylum, assisted by Charles K. Mills, M. D., lecturer on nervous diseases at the University of Pennsylvania, and professor at the Poly-Clinic, and by Frank Woodbury, M. D., professor of therapeutics at Medico-Chirurgical college, and editor of The Philadelphia Medical Times. There were present a number of other physicians and surgeons connected with the colleges and hospitals of the city.

The brain was removed, and with scalpel and scissors Drs. Engel and Mills made a careful examination. On its outer coating numerous granulations were found and the veins were discovered to be congested. Beneath this coating was a whitish gray deposit which Dr. Engel declared carried out his theory that the cause of death was blood-poisoning and not progressive insanity, as had been asserted by the Bloomingdale asylum physicians. The matter over the cerebellum was thick and murky, and the tissues were very adherent, it being almost impossible to separate the two anterior lobes of the brain. The removal of the pia matter from the anterior lobe was found extremely difficult, and the walls of the brain were much harder than is normal. The right and left middle cerebrals and the basilar artery were taken out and retained for microscopical examination. All the main arteries were fully one-half less in caliber than is normal. The brain was not half as soft as is usually found in a person dead as long as forty-eight hours. It was unusually large and the skull very thick. The skull cap was symmetrical and the brain was very highly developed. There were no marks of what is termed general paresis. At the conclusion of the examination a consultation of the physicians present was had and a statement signed declaring that McCullough's disease was of the blood vessels of the brain, caused by blood poisoning.

The autopsy is stated to have fully substantiated Dr. Engel's theory that McCullough's mental aberration was due to the disease known as "thrombosis," which is the gathering of a thrombus or a clot of blood in one of the arteries, thus blocking the free circulation of the blood through the brain.

CREMATED BY BLAZING OIL.

Five Lives Lost at Philadelphia by an Oil Explosion.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.—While fifteen men were repairing a large iron still at the Philadelphia Lubricating company's works Wednesday it exploded and tilted over, pouring out its 150 gallons of crude oil in a fiery mass. The following were burned to death: Alexander Banks, recently from Pittsburg; Joseph Robinson, of Delaware; Patrick Boyle, Arthur Gruebler, Charles Marshal, a boy.

Charles McLean was also burned about the head and extremities, and will probably die. The cause of the explosion is unknown. Alexander Banks was working immediately under the tank when the explosion took place. While the rescuing party was in search of the victims his body was observed, as the wind carried the smoke away, lying on the ground close to the foundation wall and surrounded by blazing oil. One of the men named Michael Cavanaugh, volunteered to rescue him, and, notwithstanding the protests of his companions, crawled along on the ground after one of the firemen had saturated his clothes with water. When within reach of the unfortunate man he grasped his right foot, and when he made an effort to draw the body out the foot parted from it. Cavanaugh dropped it and hastily reached a place of safety, leaving the body to the flames. Cavanaugh's face and hands were badly burned.

A few minutes after Cavanaugh escaped the tank fell, and Banks' body was hidden from view. Charles McLean and Arthur Grueber were also found lying close to the burning still. Several other men who were working close to the still at the time of the explosion were also burned.

The loss will reach about $30,000; insurance $17,000.

THE NATIONAL GRANGE.

Calls for Less Mud and Rascality in Politics, and Fewer Elections.

BOSTON, Nov. 19.—At Wednesday's session of the National Grange the following was adopted:

Resolved, That above all party considerations stands the American government, its constitution and laws. We deplore the frequent libellous and unwarrantable attacks upon the private character of candidates for official position.

We notice in our national elections a serious interruption of every business industry and a general demoralization of public sentiment, whereby the voice of people is silenced by fraud, corruption and bribery, from which no party is exempt. Considerations call for prompt national and state legislation to remedy such evils. Experience calls for fewer elections, and we recommend that all state elections be biennial instead of annual.

Officers for the ensuing term were elected as follows: Worthy master, Hon. P. Dardan, of Mississippi; worthy overseer, James C. Draper, of Massachusetts; secretary, John Trimble, of Washington, D. C.

Don't Seem to Approve of Such Things.

QUITMAN, Ga., Nov. 19.—The building used as a colored female seminary in this town was destroyed by fire at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning. Several months ago northern Methodists purchased the building. The citizens objected strongly to the location of a negro institute on the site, and every effort was made to effect an agreement which would change the location to another part of the town. Soon after the opening of the school an unsuccessful attempt was made to assassinate the principal by shooting him at night after calling him to his door. No lives were lost by the fire, the origin of which is a mystery, but is thought to be incendiary. Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes is said to be one of the ladies interested in the school.

Beach and Hanlan to Row Again.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19.—An international single-scull race is to be arranged for the championship of the world between Beach, of Australia, and Hanlan. The challenge issued by R. K. Fox, offering to match Hanlan against Beach for $5,000 a side has been accepted by William Deeble, Beach's backer, and he has written to The Police Gazette that he will cover the forfeit, the match to take place two months hence.

Annual Convention of Architects.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—The second annual convention of the Western Association of Architects was opened in the entertainment hall of the exposition building at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. One hundred and fifty members were present.

Preparing to Encounter Disease.

The prevalence of malarial disorders being dependent upon vitiated conditions of atmosphere and water is, in certain regions, of course, inevitable. The grand question, therefore, presents itself to every resident of a fever stricken locality is, "What means shall I adopt to escape the dreaded scourge?" For a third of a century Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the embodied answer to this question. In thickly populated, and sparsely settled districts alike, in town and in country, it has afforded constant protection against malarial infection to those who have used it. It eradicates and prevents, with equal certainty, fever and ague and ague cage, and nullifies also the pernicious after effects of using persistently the hurtful alkaloid sulphate of quinine. It also remedies, with thoroughness, dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation, debility and rheumatism

A SHOW OF CRAZY THINGS.

Quilts That Are Worth Thousands of Dollars, Perhaps.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—There is a crazy quilt show in progress here, and 2,500 articles are exhibited, no two alike—not all quilts, however. Among these latter the best one is a $3,000 beauty that belongs to Mrs. Theodore Moss. The late John McCullough made her a present of it. He brought it from India. It is blue satin lined with cream silk and covered with Kensington embroidery, which was done in Japanese style by a Japanese boy. The "autograph quilt" is a $1,000 novelty in white satin with silk stars. Every bit of silk bears an autograph written with pen and ink. Queen Victoria, the prince of Wales, Gladstone and his wife, Disraeli, Gen. Grant, President Cleveland, Cardinal Newman, Archdeacon Farrar, Edwin Booth, and several hundred other notables contribute their signatures. Mrs. Wright, of Minneapolis, exhibits it. A quilt that contains pieces of dress worn by the Empress Eugenie, Sara Jewett, Rose Coughlin, and a dress worn by an occupant of the White House is another novelty. Lots of the quilts are the work of gentlemen crazy-workers. Among these is the one that took William G. Milligan, a soldier in the British army, two and a half years to make. It consists of 8,700 tiny squares. Each square was cut from a uniform contributed by officers and soldiers in her majesty's service. The 8,700 pieces together are valued at $3,000.

ACTUAL LOSS AT GALVESTON

About One Million Dollars—Opportunity for Those Benevolently Inclined.

GALVESTON, Nov. 19.—With the view of correcting an erroneous impression which has gone abroad of the actual losses incurred by the disastrous conflagration of the 13th inst., the following card has been issued:

I beg to state that the latest computation now places the losses at $1,000,000 over and above insurance; 570 houses were burned, many of the occupants being without a dollar. The immediate necessity of those who have suffered have been liberally met by home contributions and other outside sources, but much can yet be done by those who being made aware of the actual facts may feel disposed to assist the worthy in the hour of their distress.

District Manager for R. G. Dun & Co.

Mitchell Elected Senator from Oregon.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 19.—J. H. Mitchell was elected United States senator Wednesday on the third ballot, the Democrats flocking to the support at a critical time. Mitchell's vote on the first ballot was 27, George H. Williams' 14, scattering 11. The Democrats voted solidly for Slater. On the second ballot three Republicans changed to Mitchell, making him 30. Then, as per agreement Tuesday night, seventeen Democrats voted for Mitchell, making him 47. It required 46 to elect. After this there were other changes, the ballot officially being, Mitchell, 55—of which 38 were Republicans and 17 Democrats—Williams, 13; Slater (Dem.) 20, scattering, 2. The Democrats who voted for Mitchel justify their voting for a Republican by stating that he has pledged himself to support the Democratic National administration in whatever may be required of him. They voted for him under authority of the caucus, and so make the election a party act.

Grandson of Peter Cartwright in Trouble.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Nov. 19.—Quinn Harrison, a grandson of the Rev. Peter Cartwright, the pioneer Methodist minister, assaulted his sister, Mrs. A. Ely, of Chicago, Wednesday, breaking one of her ribs and inflicting, it is feared, internal injuries. Harrison's father, one of the richest farmers in Sangamon county, was buried Tuesday. The attack grew out of a dispute over the dead man's property, the family not having been able to find a will which they believe he made.

Years ago Harrison murdered Greek Crofton, then a student in Abe Lincoln's law office. In some way he escaped the penitentiary, and went to Kansas, whence he returned to attend his father's funeral. He will be held to await the result of Mrs. Ely's injuries.

Schaefer Beaten Again.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The third game of the tournament, the first between the old rivals, Jacob Schaefer and George Slosson, brought out the largest audience yet assembled in Central Music hall. The big French expert Vignaux had his first off night and occupied a place in the box his pretty wife had preempted for the first two nights of his struggle. Slosson took the game in hand from the start, and up to the tenth inning looked as though he would win "hands down." In that inning, however, Schaefer made 80 and Slosson followed with 53. In the 19th inning Schaefer made 71 and in the 20th rolled up 85 points—the best of the evening. In the 33d inning he ran 79. Slosson, however, played a steady game and at the close the score was: Slosson, 600; Schaefer, 501. Averages—Slosson, 18 6-33; Schaefer, 15 6-33.

A Crooked Postmaster Suicides.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Postoffice Inspector Metcalf received word Wednesday morning that on Nov. 15 A. R. Brown, postmaster at Shepardsville, Mich., had disappeared under suspicious circumstances. Inspector E. C. Turner was dispatched there at once. He arrived the next day and found the postmaster had returned and committed suicide in his room over the postoffice by taking strychnine. On investigating the office no report could be found, and in a waste-basket was discovered the remnants of a registered letter addressed to D. S. Shelly, Ionia, Mich., from J. M. Kosht, Shepardsville, Mich. The letter had been rifled of $81. Part of the money was found on the body of Brown and identified. The office was taken charge of by the bondsmen of the late postmaster.

MILLION AND A HALF

WANTED BY THE CATTLEMEN TO FIGHT EPIDEMICS.

Congress Called Upon to Take Action in the Matter—Facts About Dairies—Bogus Butter Discussed and Resolutions Passed—Adjournment.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The national convention of cattle-growers resumed its session Wednesday morning at the Sherman house. Mr. Thomas Sturgis, of Cheyenne, read a paper on the subject of live-stock diseases and the mode of their prevention. He held that increased power should be given to the national bureau of animal industry, so that it might be able to appraise and slaughter diseased animals. Quarantine should also be enforced to prevent the introduction of pleuro-pneumonia or any other disease. The federal and state governments should both join in the movement of crushing out disease by slaughtering the infected animals. There should be larger appropriations both for national and state boards engaged in the work, and also to enforce more rigidly the quarantine laws.

The committee on resolutions, by Dr. Eames, recommended the appointment of a finance committee of five members, who should be empowered to raise funds to defray the expenses of setting on foot proper measures to secure legislation to protect the cattle interests. It also suggested the appointment of a committee to present to the approaching session of congress the following measures:

For the perfecting of existing laws; for the creation of adequate provision for national oversight and control of cattle diseases under the direction of the commissioner of agriculture; for the appropriation of not less than $1,5000,000 for such oversight and control; for the employment of a sufficient number of expert and competent men; for the payment by the general government of a reasonable valuation, upon the basis of value prior to infection, for animals slaughtered on account of disease, and for the due enforcement of such laws.

A general discussion arose on the proposition that the United States government should pay for diseased cattle on appraisal, in the course of which Gen. N. M. Curtis, of New York, referred to the decided reasons with which, when governor of the state of New York, President Cleveland had favored effective measures to stamp out diseased cattle and to remove restrictions upon the importation of cattle shipped, as an evidence that he was personally and officially in favor of the measures proposed. The resolutions were adopted.

President Alvord read a paper on the dairy as a part of the cattle question. He said the continued fertility of the soil was essential to the prosperity of this country, and the keeping of domestic live stock properly maintained was essential to profitable agriculture. The keeping of stock was the salvation of the land, and would be the shortest method of rejuvenating the eastern states, and of preserving the fertility of the western states. The dairy interest represented one-half the cattle interest. The dairy cattle represented a value of $13,000,000, of which $8,000,000 represented the production of butter, $1,000,000 cheese, and $4,000,000 milk supply. The growth of the dairy interest was shown by the fact that a patent for a churn has been applied for every fortnight since the patent office was opened. There were 6,000 butter and cheese factories now in existence, with a product of $26,000,000. The average product of cows was only 400 pounds of milk, although in the dairy milk districts cows gave 500 pounds a month, and there were cases of cows giving 800 or 900 pounds, while pure-bred dairy cows gave 1,200 to 1,400 pounds of milk. The quality of the milk given by cows should be developed rather than the increase in number. The market was crowded with bogus butter and skimmed cheese, and both of them were frauds on the consumer. For skimmed cheese the dairymen themselves were responsible, and it was from their hands that it got on the market. The imitation butter was sold by the retailer as pure butter. Legislation in New York to prevent the use of bogus butter had failed of any good effect, but the enforcement of the act covering the branding of cheese had restored some confidence to the market. Instead of endeavoring to pass new legislation, they should resolve to make individual effort. They could do more by this than in any other way. The cow itself was not going to desert them through any Armour-ous entanglement with the western hog. Unfortunately it was a fact that at present of all the bogus butter on the market a larger part was more clean and palatable than the real dairy butter. The most promising field of effort for dairymen was in trying to alter those conditions.

It was resolved by the convention that the manufacture and sale of all compounds intended to take the place of butter should be so regulated by the state and natural laws that they shall be put upon the markets under their own names, and that all manufacturers of butter who shall introduce into the product any foreign matter for the purpose of adulterating or cheapening it shall be compelled by proper laws to mark all such adulterated compounds.

The convention called on each association which had delegates present to endeavor to aid in the suppression of contagious diseases. It decided to urge the governors of the states to recommend to their respective legislatures the passage of proper laws authorizing the appointment of sanitary boards. Resolutions regarding the restricting of the free shipment of southern cattle liable to be affected with Texas fever were presented and laid on the table.

After listening to a report on beef canning the convention adjourned without day.

Convicted of Slaying His Sister.

ATCHISON, Kan., Nov. 19.—At 6 o'clock Wednesday morning the jury in the Willie Baldwin case returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. The verdict gave great satisfaction, and crowds congratulated the jurors. It is believed a different verdict would have caused violence. When the verdict was announced the condemned man's mother caused an affecting scene. Baldwin was charged with the murder of his sister, July 7, so as to get a larger share of his dead father's estate. The supposition is that he chloroformed his victim and robbed the house to make the crime appear like the work of burglars.

Her Majesty's Signature.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The queen signed the proclamation dissolving parliament Wednesday. Her majesty's signature is written in a bold, distinct hand across the top of a broad sheet of parchment. A special gazette was issued announcing the prorogation, and writs giving notice to the electors of the approaching general elections have been posted.

OBITUARY.

YATES.

At his home in Shopiere on the 12th inst., W. H. Yates, aged 37 years. The death of Mr. Yates was not unexpected, as he had suffered for some time past of that dread disease, consumption. Although undergoing intense suffering for the past three years, he had ever been a patient man, a kind neighbor, and a good husband and father. During his last illness of about two weeks he suffered greatly most of the time, yet patiently waited the summons of his Master, which came about eight o'clock on the morning of the 12th. He was conscious to the last, and passed away trusting in a Savior's love. Among his last remarks was that he was going "where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest."

The funeral services were held in the M. E. church, Saturday, Rev. Anderson officiating. Messrs. A. Butler, F. Humphrey, E. Mosley, M. Mott, C. Scofield and W. Swingle acting as bearers. The remains were interred in the village cemetery. The deceased leaves a wife and child, besides numerous relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

Mrs. Yates wishes to express her sincerest thanks for the many kindnesses shown her in her late sorrow.

for over a year, his suffering from Neuralgia was so great. Three doses of ATHLOPHOROS cured him.

Neuralgia, though one of the most common and most painful of diseases, has baffled all medical skill, and until the discovery of ATHLOPHOROS was considered almost, if not quite incurable. Athlophoros surely and quickly cures it. This statement, though strong, is warranted by the facts. Thousands have tested its value and recommend it as the ONLY remedy that brings relief. For ladies subject to neuralgia or nervous headaches it is indispensable. Athlophoros contains no opium, morphine, or other dangerous ingredient. It is absolutely harmless and universally successful in the prompt cure of this painful disease.

Ask your druggist for Athlophoros. If you cannot get it of him we will send it express paid on receipt of regular price—$1.00 per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed.

The good SAMARITAN NERVINE.

I once tried every sort of cure,
To restore me to good health;
And spent in vain, of that I'm sure,
Considerable share of wealth;
But all was vain, till a friend advised,
In a manner most deserving',
The medicine he most highly prized,
RICHMOND'S SAMARITAN NERVINE.

I took his advice; in one short week,
I felt no further pain;
For doctors no longer I had to seek,
For I never felt sick again.
I'm healthy and happy the whole day long;
So if health be worth preservin',
The constant burden of my song
Is try SAMARITAN NERVINE.

T'will cure the young, t'will heal the old,
T'will wake the whole world better;
At St. Joseph, Missouri, the medicine is sold;
Drop Dr. Richmond a letter:
He'll give you advice far better than wealth,
He'll point out the way to preserve in
The best condition our newly found health,
By the use of SAMARITAN NERVINE.

ZOPESA.

Dyspeptics, whose digestive powers have become weakened and impaired, who are troubled with distress in the stomach, heart-burn, water-brash, etc., those who cannot enjoy a good meal without distress, will find in Zopesa a remarkable relief and cure. A yellow skin, disagreeable taste in the mouth, coated tongue, restless nights, and entire want of vigor, are one of the symptoms of liver trouble, all of which are effectually removed. Constipation or habitual costiveness yields readily to Zopesa; it acts gently, yet effectively, by acting directly upon the cause, and removes it without pain. Persons of sedentary habits (which is often the cause of costiveness and irregularity of the bowels) will find Zopesa most efficacious; If you suffer from indigestion, heart burn or sick head ache, don't fail to try it. One dose will relieve you immediately, and one large bottle will cure any ordinary case.

—The Janesville Chronicle, recently started as a democratic daily morning paper, since the Recorder turned democratic, proposes to fly the "Independent Republican" flag, whatever that may be. The Democratic Recorder encourages this change of flags with honeyed phrases and words complimentary.—Beloit Free Press.—The flag continues to fly low. Republican emblems are never at their best on a democratic staff.

—To-day a committee of Janesville business men and city officials are looking over the water works at Madison. They started at 9:10 this morning and return some time to-night. Among the number are: Aldermen T. T. Croft and James Sherer, M. M. Phelps, C. B. Conrad, W. B. Conrad, H. D. McKinney, A. E. Burpee, C. S. Jackman, L. B. Carle, Chief Engineer J. C. Spencer, Hon. Hiram Merril, F. C. Cook, G. M. Hanchett, M. C. Smith, and R. L. Valentine.

—The funeral of Mrs. Abigail Williams was held at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Johnston Taylor, of the first ward, A large number of friends and relatives were present among them being her son from the northern part of the state. The floral tributes were beautiful and appropriate. After a selection by the singers who were Mrs. J. W. St. John, Mrs. J. C. Cook, Mr. Clarence L. Clark and Mr. Frank L. Hayden. Rev. Dr. M. G. Hodge read the burial service and exhorted the mourners to be patient and bear up under the affliction. After the services the remains were taken to the Fulton cemetery for burial, Messrs. William Eller, S. P. Hoskins, I. A. Whiffin and J. I. Vanvranken acting as pall bearers.

—Mr. Oscar F. Rowe, the enterprising tobacco man, who is associated with Mr. Frank Stevens in the firm of Rowe & Stevens, is now making ready to occupy his new home on Jackson street, first ward. The building is now being finished and will when completed be one of the finest residences in Janesville. It is two stories high, with capacious storage rooms overhead, contains in all fifteen rooms, and a more elegant and convenient residence could not be desired. The interior is finished in hard wood, oak and cherry predominating, and the floors in three of the rooms are of polished red oak, giving a very beautiful and striking appearance, making the general effect strikingly beautiful. Altogether it is a very elegant residence, and adds much to the general appearance of the neighborhood.

—The local democracy appears to be well equipped with wings and will undoubtedly be able to soar high. The leading wing representing the younger element of the party succeeded in buying the Recorder so quietly that the first intimation of the transaction came to the knowledge of the older and more conservative wing through the columns of the reorganized organ. This method of procedure does not seem to have won the approval of the last named faction, to any alarming extent, and now it is rumored that the old and reliable Janesville Times backed by a syndicate representing age and democratic stability, will fling to the morning air on the first day of January next, a daily paper, which shall be democratic from the ground up. If there is any thing Janesville needs just now it is a third daily in sympathy with the local and national democracy. Let the good work roll on.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

CIRCUIT COURT.

This morning Judge Bennett charged the jury in the case of Henderson against the Beloit Water Power company, and at 10:30 o'clock it retired to deliberate on a verdict. Up to three o'clock they have not returned, and it begins to look as though there will be a disagreement about the verdict returned.

The case now being heard is that of Hemmingway against the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road. This is an action to recover damages for injuries sustained by Charles Hemmingway a boy thirteen years of age. The boy was riding on a train over the C. M. & St. P. road, and when he jumped off fell so that his hand was cut off by the wheels. The amount sued for is $2,000, Hon. John Winans and O. H. Fethers appear for the plaintiff and John A. Carey, general solicitor for the company, A. A. Jackson, of this city and H. H. Field, of Milwaukee, appear for the defendant. This morning the jury viewed the premises and at two o'clock the taking of testimony was commenced, Charles Hemmingway being the first witness.

MUNICIPAL COURT.

The case of the state of Wisconsin against John Ritchie, has occupied this court all day. It is a case of assault and battery, the defendant being a student in the Valentine Bro's School of Telegraphy, and the alleged assault, an attempt on the part of Ritchie to forcibly enter the school room after being suspended by the school authorities. It is being tried before a jury, and will occupy most of the day.

This morning warrants were issued by Judge Patten for the arrest of William O'Brien, and Clark and Horace Shimmel, of Shopiere, for breaking into Peter Fonda's cider press. Sheriff Hanthorn started after the boys about half past three.

"Athlophoros gives perfect satisfaction It has helped and cured some where all other remedies have failed to do any good," is the report of Dullam Bros., druggists of Flint, Mich., on the great rheumatism and neuralgia remedy's work.

OBITUARY.

MR. SAMUEL BRUGER.

Last night at half past seven o'clock, Mr. Samuel Bruger, of Plymouth, departed this life, aged seventy nine years. Deceased was one of the old settlers in this part of the country, coming here some thirty eight years ago from Pennsylvania. His death was sudden and resulted from a stroke of paralysis. He leaves six children all of whom are of age. The funeral will be held Sunday morning at ten o'clock from his late residence near the Plymouth church. Mr. Bruger was well known and highly esteemed all through the part of the county where he resided and his death will be much deplored.

FLICKERING FLAMES.

Monterey is Again Visited by the Fire Fiend.

Galbraith Bros. also Have a Slight Taste.

This morning at half past three Night Officer McGinly run into the east side engine house and told the men that there was a fire in the fifth ward. They turned out but while endeavoring to locate the blaze a telephone alarm was turned in and the west side bell began to wake the echoes, Both companies turned out in good style and soon reached the fire which was in the grocery store of Mr. Charles Wurl, on the corner of Western avenue and Linn street. It was a one story frame building and before the department reached the spot was wrapped in flames, so that although the men worked faithfully nothing could be saved. No cause can be positively assigned for the conflagration. Mr. Wurl knew nothing of the fire until awakened by his neighbors, and when he reached the store the flames had gained good headway. There had been a fire in the coal stove all day, but the fire was first seen bursting out of the cellar, which makes it rather improbable that it started from the stove. The building was insured in the German of Freeport, J. Strasser agent, for $200 and the stock for $800 sums which will hardly cover the loss, as he claims to have had in a stock of about $1,500 worth of miscellaneous groceries. A convenient hydrant would have prevented much of this loss, as the water supply was so far distant that all the hose on the ground was needed to make one lead.

Yesterday afternoon some clothing in an upper room of the Galbraith Bros.' barn caught fire from being in contact with the stove pipe. They spread the blaze to the wood work near by and soon considerable smoke was produced. It attracted attention and before any serious damage had been done, the bucket brigade were on hand in sufficient numbers to squelch the very ordinary blaze The fire was subdued and what promised to be a very extensive conflagration was prevented.

Thousands Say So

Mr. T. W. Atkins, Girard, Kan., writes: "I never hesitate to recommend your Electric Bitters to my customers, they give entire satisfaction and are rapid sellers." Electric Bitters are the purest and best medicine known and will positively cure Kidney and Liver complaints. Purify the blood and regulate the bowels. No family can afford to be without them. They will save hundreds of dollars in doctor's bills every year. Sold at 50 cents a bottle by F. Sherer & Co.

Pharmaceutical Matters.

At the late meeting of the state pharmaceutical board, at Milwaukee, 26 applications were received, 14 passed as licentiates, and 12 failed. The next meeting will be held at Milwaukee, Wednesday, Jan. 20, 1886. Madison, Wednesday, April 14, 1886. Examination called at 9 a. m. Applications should be sent to the secretary, E. B. Heimstreet, Janesville, properly filled out and sworn to, with fee at least five days before the meeting. No minor certificates are now granted but by the minor examination and to persons residing in towns of less than 500 population.

Since the law went into effect there have been but three prosecutions, as follows:

People vs J. S. B. Thomas, March 19, 1885, before ——Pettibone, J. P., Juneau $50 and costs; paid, Defendant was engaged in the drug business at Horicon and not registered.

People vs F. F. Rabbas, of Alma, Aug. 21, 1885, before H. J. Bieck, J. P., Alma. Judgment $50 and costs; paid. Defendant was charged with keeping a pharmacy without being registered or having a registered pharmacist in charge.

People vs J. W. Hicks, of Albany, Nov. 16, 1885, before ——Abbott, J. P., Monroe. Judgment $50 and costs; paid The defendant was charged with keeping a pharmacy without a registered pharmacist in charge.

Next in importance to the Christmas holiday celebration, in every well regulated home, is the birthday anniversary. Appreciating this fact and desiring to add a ray of happiness to the life of Aunt Polly Cutts, a number of her lady friends planned a birthday surprise party which they are enjoying this afternoon at the home of the old lady's son, Mr. A. K Cutts, of the second ward. The dial of time marks 83 years and the old lady still retains her faculties and possesses reasonable health. This pleasant reminder on the part of her friends, was thoroughly appreciated and will contribute to the joyous memories of a ripe old age.

POULTRY CULTURE.

Does it Pay to Keep Hens,—A Few Facts From Experience.

The theory of hen culture is undoubtedly as fine spun as any theory extant. Agricultural journals all over the country contain articles in almost every issue, commending the enterprise, and depicting in glowing terms the immense amount of comfort and profit that clusters around a well selected flock of domestic fowls.

Many of these articles are written by men who never owned a hen, or contributed to her support. They describe the average hen as a producer of two hundred eggs per year. This fruit, at twenty-five cents per dozen, amounts to $4 50 per annum. The hen costs nothing but an opportunity to roam at large during the day, and a place to roost nights. As a result of this kind of a financial statement, many innocent people add to their establishments a henery, expecting to realize sudden wealth. Like many other adventurers, that fail, they never come to the surface to report. The following statement may be found as reliable as a great many that are published in favor of the hen. The statement is based upon a flock of one hundred average chickens, city-bred and carefully disciplined; as a foundation for the flock, twenty-five hens, worth $6.25, are necessary; during the laying season, which generally lasts about a month, they will produce thirty dozen eggs, worth about $4.50; the balance of the year will be devoted by the diligent fowls, to moulting and setting. As a result of the last named effort they produced 75 chickens worth perhaps $30. Add to this the value of the hens, $6.25 and the value of the eggs $4.50 and you have a grand total of $40.75. Then console yourself by looking over the feed bill of $75 for the year, and be comforted by the fact that fresh eggs and home bred fowls are always better than can be bought in any market. The profitable hen resides in the country and shifts for herself; the best nest, is an old fashioned hay mow, and the best breed, an old fashioned hen.

The cheapest place for city people to raise eggs is at a reliable grocery, where spring chickens ornament the front door at 25 cents apiece. Poultry culture aside from its fascinations, may be pronounced a snare and a delusion.

Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, Is Remarkable as a Flesh Producer.

The increase of flesh and strength is perceptible immediately after commencing to use the Emulsion. The Cod Liver Oil emulsified with the Hypophosphites is most remarkable for its healing, strengthening and flesh producing qualities.

The Street Railway.

The Janesville street railway, which has excited a good deal of public attention during the past month, may become a matter of history similar to many other enterprises that have been permitted to die of neglect, or it may become an active reality if properly treated and encouraged. Mr. Holmes, the projector of the first enterprise, left the city after his last visit, somewhat disappointed at the lack of interest and encouragement exhibited, feeling that the demands made by the city, were unreasonable. Since his departure, a gentleman from Chicago, representing capital, has looked the ground over and deems the field a good one for the enterprise.

While the prevailing sentiment of the city seems to be, that we do not need a street railway, it would hardly seem possible that any fair minded man would object to such an acquisition, with the interests of the city property guarded, especially when constructed by outside capital. Ambition looks to an increase of population. With its natural advantages Janesville should add to her census roll of 1890 at least fifty per cent. The problem of how to gain this increase remains with the people to solve. One of the vital elements entering into the satisfactory solution of this important question, is a spirit which seeks to encourage and promote the welfare of every legitimate enterprise which seeks admission, and expresses a desire to become one of us. Our neighboring city, Rockford, is a fair specimen of what this spirit will do for a city. Taking it for granted that Janesville will adopt the same policy and share the same benefits, a street railway assumes tangible proportions. With this acquisition, and an increase of population, outlying residence property assumes increased value, and vacant lots now undesirable, take on improvements and add to our material wealth.

The good judgment of our city council, who have the matter at their disposal will doubtless cause them to consider the question with candor and fairness, and result in the city sharing the benefits which may arise from a street railway.

Cavalazzi Is the Proper Caper.

New York, Nov. 19.—The performance of "La Favorita" at the Academy of Music by the Mapleson Opera company Wednesday evening, brought forward another debutante, Mlle. Virginia Pervini. The lady has a fine stage presence, but did not create on the whole a particularly favorable impression. The honors of the evening were carried off by Signor De Anna and Mme. Cavalazzi, the premiere danseuse. The efforts of these artists, particularly the latter, saved the performance from being tedious. Mme. Cavalazza, who was frequently recalled and overwhelmed with floral offerings, completely overshadowed the prima donna and earned fully two-thirds of the applause of the night.

A [illegible]oom in Stocks.

New York, Nov. 19.—There was a veritable boom on the stock exchange Wednesday morning. Prices of stocks of every description advanced steadily from the opening up to noon on an enormous buying. Transactions were the largest in years, and in the two hours to noon alone fully 423,000 shares changed hands. The stocks especially prominent, both in point of strength and activity, were Indiana, Bloomington & Western, Lake Erie & Western, Jersey Central, Kansas & Texas, St. Paul and Lake shore.

SCROFULA CURED.

March 28, 1873—I hereby certify that I was afflicted with fever sore on right limb for nearly three (3) years. We employed what we thought the three best physicians in Fort Wayne without any benefit; and for over two years I could not walk, and my whole system was affected. At this stage of the disease I consulted Dr. S. Clay Todd, and I am glad to say, under his treatment I became perfectly well, and thanks to a kind Providence and the skill of Dr. S. Clay Todd, I am no longer a cripple. I was 61 years old when cured. Those who have such a disease should employ Dr. Clay Todd at once. Fort Wayne, Ind.

LYDIA KNEPPER.

Roxbury, Dane Co., Wis., May 4. 1884.—Dr. S. Clay Todd, Dear Sir: I thought you would like to hear from me. I have taken nearly three bottles of the medicine you sent me. I have one bottle to take. I am happy to say that I have lost all that pain and stiffness in my joints. I am in hopes that by the time I take the other bottle I will be able to say I am well. I am in hopes that you can do something for my sister at New Orleans, La. She is a great sufferer from Rheumatism. With respect, I remain as ever, yours very truly.

P. M. FABING.

PROF. S. CLAY TODD, M. D.

The noted Specialist, of Fort Wayne, Ind., (Box 1361.) Medicines sent every where.

Deafness Steals on a Man

so gradually that he finds himself unable to hear ordinary conversation without a warning, except a ringing or roaring in the head. These noises in the head are caused by Catarrh, Discharges from Ears, nervous Debility, a sudden shock or cold, etc., and always leads to deafness. The above and Sore Eyes, Dimness of Sight, Granulated Lids, and all diseases of the eye and ear can always be cured. Are you nervous and weak? Or have you any complaint which is keeping you from your work or destroying your usefulness or comfort? Then do not delay, but at once consult Prof. S. Clay Todd, at his office, or by letter Prof. S Clay Todd's wonderful cures have made his name famous throughout the length and breadth of the land. He is constantly receiving letters of inquiry, and forwarding medicines to all parts of the country. Prof. S. Clay Todd particularly requests those who have had treatment from other physicians without permanent benefit, to call on him and make a trial of his never failing skill and remedies. Note the place—Goodwin House. Call at Beloit or write to Fort Wayne, Indiana. Office hours, from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. Consultation Free.

Janesville Testimonial.

From the Janesville Gazette: I have had sciatic rheumatism six years; my right leg had become shortened so that I had to have my boot-heel lengthened (2½) two and one-half inches. I began taking treatment from Dr. S. Clay Todd May 31st, and am pleased to say his medicines are the only medicines that ever helped me. In three weeks my leg was lengthened three quarters (¾) of an inch, and I have better control of my limb. I could not walk up stairs one step after another for one year, but I can now. Respectfully.

A. H. Fairbank.

Janesville, Wis., June 20, 1885.

Rheumatism Always Cured.

From the Madison Democrat of Feb. 14. Will you kindly allow me a little space in your columns to testify to the efficient professional services and skill of Dr. S. Clay Todd. I saw his advertisement in your paper and applied to him for treatment for my wife. She had been suffering for fifteen long years with liver complaint, kidney disease and dropsical tendencies. I have tried the best medical skill to be had, but to no purpose. Dr. Todd has been treating her since the 20th of January. She at once began to improve and is now practically a well woman. I thank God and Dr. Todd and want every suffering human being to know it. My postoffice address is Madison, Wis., and any one desiring further facts can address me.

Very Truly, WM. M. LEONARD.

Make one call if possible, and Dr. Todd will give you a full account of your case free of charge.

FRED H. FELLOWS,

EAST SIDE JEWELER.

W. W. Hall, M. D., the editor of the Journal of Health published in New York, and a recognized authority on medical subjects, has the following to say of medicines used for coughs:

"The remedies for coughs, colds and consumption are innumerable, the combinations of ingredients are infinite; but if the reader is observant, he will find not one in a hundred will there be, which does not contain Opium in the form of Paregoric, Laudanum or Morphia, producing every year water on the brain in multitudes of children and apoplexies, or ruinous results to the digestive organs of adults. Intelligent druggists know that all medicines sold for coughs, colds, consumption, and tickling in the throat, contain Opium in some form or other. They repress the cough, but do not eradicate it; hence the first purchase paves the way for a second or third, and as it is the essential nature of Opium to close up, to deaden the sensibilities—constipation is induced, and becomes the immediate cause of three-fourths of all ordinary ailments, such as headache, neuralgia, dyspepsia and piles."

We give our positive guarantee that Collin's Cherry Cough Cure contains no Chloroform, Tartar Emetic, preparations of Opium, or other Narcotic, and may be administered to children with perfect safety. Unlike the Opium Cough Medicines generally sold, which lend but momentary relief at the expense of enfeebling the patient, it is a remedy that does not dry up a cough and leave the disease behind it, but strikes directly at the cause; carries off all the phlegm accumulated in the Lungs and Throat, and heals them. For sale by Prentice & Evenson, Druggists, opposite Post Office, Janesville.
